SUPPLEMENTAL UPDATES

Supplemental bargaining continued across the country last week as Teamster negotiating committees for 13 of the 30 open supplements and riders met with the company. While supplemental committees have reported some progress over the last week, UPS continues to stonewall on substantive Teamster proposals. Committee chairs anticipate that bargaining will intensify over the next few weeks before national negotiations begin on April 17. Ten supplemental negotiating committees have bargaining dates scheduled for this week.

Here are the latest updates on supplemental negotiations as of March 20. Scroll down to find your relevant supplement.

Local 177 Supplement

The Local 177 Supplement Negotiating Committee for drivers met with the company on March 13-14. Nine proposals were exchanged, and tentative agreements were reached on five. Topics discussed include funeral leave, orientation pay, meal periods, discharge language and off property issues, feeder issues around lunch and bumping, start times for package drivers, vacations, transfer language, and sick leave for full- and part-timers. More meetings with the company are scheduled for this week. Regarding automotive/maintenance, the Teamsters met with UPS on March 15-16. Eleven proposals were exchanged, and four proposals were tentatively agreed upon addressing CDL memorandum, increases to employee reimbursement related to use of personal vehicles, day off requests, leave of absence language, and bereavement leave. Other items discussed include training language, tool allowance, pool mechanic language, and utility mechanic language. The next bargaining date is set for this week on March 24.
